Description

1940s BURNT ORANGE GOWN

- A divine burnt-orange gown from the 1940s with a gorgeous silver-sequined display on the front!
- Rayon fabric
- Crossover deep V neckline (we had it pinned for young model's modesty)
- Sequins are a semi-clear light gold & champagne color that together appear silver from a distance
- Long A-line skirt
- Hidden metal USA zipper on side
- Adjustable buckled waistband in back with keyhole and two fabric-covered buttons at the nape

ERA: 1940s

MEASUREMENTS

LENGTH: 57"

BUST: about 40"

WAIST: 31"

HIPS: 46"

HEM: 1.5"

CONDITION: The sequins are excellent! The fabric on the buttons have obvious wear around the edges. There's a light spot on the right front thigh that I haven't attempted to remove. The shoulder-line has been modified to be shorter so there's room there for take-out if necessary. The bottom hem is slightly dingy. Very good condition!

*Model Size: L Height: 5'7" Bust: 37" Waist: 29" Hips: 40"
